- b. True License. The parties acknowledge their mutual intention that the license granted under this EULA be construed to be a true license and not a sale of the Licensed Application, the Application Database, or any component or element thereof, or any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or other proprietary rights therein or thereto.
- c. Single-asset. An Authorized User may use the Licensed Application on only one computer owned or controlled by such Authorized User at one site owned or controlled by Authorized User.

For the avoidance of doubt, each party understands and agrees that Lincoln's collection and use of business contact data of an Authorized User and/or its employees or agents for the purpose of responding to business requests, troubleshooting, marketing, or undertaking commercial due diligence does not constitute "processing" on behalf of the Authorized User for purposes of the Data Processing Addendum. If any claim is commenced against a party entitled to indemnification under this paragraph ("Indemnified Party"), the Indemnified Party will provide notice of the claim and copies of all related documentation to the party obligated to provide indemnification ("Indemnifying Party") and the Indemnifying Party will assume control of the defense of such claim at its cost and expense. Such notice and documentation will be provided as promptly as possible; provided, that in no event shall the Indemnifying Party be relieved of its indemnification obligations hereunder unless the failure to provide notice promptly hereunder results in, and then only to the extent of, actual prejudice to the rights of the Indemnifying Party. If those attempts fail, then the dispute will be mediated by a mutually accepted mediator to be chosen by the parties within forty-five (45) days after written notice by either party to the other demanding mediation. No party may unreasonably withhold consent to the selection of a mediator. The parties will share the cost of the mediation equally. By mutual agreement, the parties may postpone mediation until some specified but limited discovery about the dispute has been completed. The parties may also agree to replace mediation with some other form of alternative dispute resolution. Any dispute which cannot be resolved by the parties through negotiation, mediation or other form of agreed alternative dispute resolution within one hundred twenty (120) days following the date of the initial demand for it by one of the parties may then be submitted to the federal and state courts located in Ohio for resolution or arbitration, if applicable, as set forth in Section 18. The use of any alternative dispute resolution procedure will not be construed under the doctrine of laches, waiver or estoppel to affect adversely the rights of either party. All of the above alternative dispute resolution procedures shall be confidential.

In the event that any part of this EULA is determined to violate any applicable federal, state, local or foreign laws, rules or regulations, then the remaining provisions of this EULA shall remain in full force and effect and shall be enforced to fullest extent permitted by law and the parties agree to negotiate in good faith revisions to the provision or provisions that are in violation. In the event the parties are unable to agree to modified terms as required to bring the entire EULA into compliance, either party may terminate this EULA by not less than ten (10) days prior written notice to the other party.
